

LIBRARY INTERIOR RENOVATIONS

Elk Grove Village, Illinois 2001

A new Computer Lab and the Youth Services AV Area for a public library were divided from existing spaces with a glazed partition system to match existing. Existing ceiling, lighting and carpet were reused as much as possible at the AV Area. New ceiling, lighting, mechanical and electrical services were installed at the Computer Lab in order to insure its proper functioning and the comfort level of its users.

